

BRINGING OBJECTS TO LIFE

Symposium On the Occasion of Annelou Van Gijn's Retirement

14 October 2022 - Faculty of Archaeology Leiden University

Programme

13:00-13:15 – Opening address: Jan Kolen

13:15-13:35 – Sewing with Seal Skin: Using experimental archaeology and microwear analysis to investigate Paleo-Inuit sewing practices

Matilda Siebrecht

13:35-13:55 – If these weapons could talk.. Investigating Bronze Age martial practices, ideals, and identities through (micro)wear analysis and experimental archaeology

Valerio Gentile

13:55-14:15 – Spark of genius: A brief history of research into prehistoric fire making at Leiden

Andy Sorensen

14:15-14:35 – Traces, processes and people: mapping the histories of objects in prehistoric Britain

Christina Tsoraki

14:35-14:55 – An axe to grind: How microscale information can provide monumental insights into Mesolithic funerary rites

Aimée Little

14:55-15:25 – Coffee Break

15:25-15:45 – The tools that aren't there

Diederik Pomstra

15:45-16:05 – Learn the letter E

Corrie Bakels

16:05-16:25 - Things are not always as they seem

Karsten Wentink

16:25-17:00 – Closing address: Annemieke Verbaas, Eric Mulder & Annelou Van Gijn

17:00-18:30 – Drinks