

Dear PhD candidates and Post-Docs,

The Graduate Schools of the faculties of Social Sciences, Humanities, Governance and Global Affairs, and Archeology are happy to announce the programme for the PhD career event on 2 June 2023.

Program

13:40-14:00	Doors open & Registration	Entrance of the Pieter de la Court building
14:00-14:05	Welcome by dr. Amanda Henry, Executive Director of Research, Archeology	1B01
14:05-15:00	“Reimagining Doctorate Holders’ motivations to Make Career Transitions: Exploring post-PhD career prospects within and outside academia” Keynote speech by dr. Inge van der Weijden, Senior researcher, lecturer and PhD coordinator	1B01
15:00-16:00	Break for Professional Development <ul style="list-style-type: none">Professional photos for your CVInfo point “How to find support from HRM” by dr. Anita Romijn, Advisor Learning & DevelopmentShare your experiences coffee (informal get together to share experiences and ideas)	1B16 1B01 1B01
15:30-16:00	Workshop: “Getting started with your online visibility in 6 steps” by drs. Clara Bik, Communication specialist.	1A09
16:00-17:00	Talkshow "Finding your career outside of academia" Alumni share their experiences: Dr. Khadija Alsarhi, Community Development Professional (Social Sciences) Dr. Violet Benneke, Advisor Political Dialogue at NIMD (Social Sciences) Dr. Hanna Fricke, Data steward at UvA (Humanities) Dr. Danielle van Osch, auditor at the Netherlands Court of Audit (Governance and Global Affairs) Dr. Paul van den Akker, Innovation broker/Strategy advisor at National Archives (Archeology)	1B01
17:00-18:30	Network drinks	FSW Café

There are still limited spots available. If you have already signed up, but cannot make it, please deregister.

Looking forward to seeing you on Friday 2 June,

Ina, Pui Chi, Manon & Jimmy (on behalf of the Graduate Schools Social Sciences, Humanities, Governance and Global Affairs, and Archeology)

(De-)Register here