

INVITATION

Humanities - Lunchbytes

Universiteit
Leiden
Humanities

Curious about how your colleagues teach, or want to know more about student wellbeing or applying for a Comenius scholarship? Sign up now for the (free) faculty meetings for and by teachers.

Click here to register

With lunch!

14 Feb | 12-13h

Learning Analytics

Hossam Ahmed

With his Comenius grant, Hossam used the Learning Outcomes functionality in Brightspace to map personalised learning paths for students. During the lunchbyte, he will tell more about how he did this, what the benefits are, as well as give tips and tricks.

4 Dec | 13-14h

Chat GPT

Multiple teachers

Large Language Models (LLMs) such as ChatGPT offer new opportunities in artificial intelligence. Lecturers who have prepared an e-learning on use and misuse will share valuable insights during this lunchbyte.

18 Jan | 11-13h

XL Transferable Skills

Anne Zwetsloot

In much of our education, we teach students transferable skills for the labour market. In this lunchbyte, we discuss challenges and practical tools for fostering skills in students.

27 Feb | 12-13h

Dialogue and student wellbeing

Karin Nijenhuis

Dialogue in education is important for mutual connection and better student wellbeing. This lunchbyte will explain how to use dialogue and you will experience for yourself how dialogue works and what the effect is.

11 Mar | 11-13h

XL Comenius Scholarship

Sanne Arens

Thinking about applying for a Comenius Scholarship? During this lunchbyte, you will get practical information on how to apply. Furthermore, colleagues who have been awarded the scholarship will tell you more about how they prepared their application and project.

20 Mar | 12-13.30h

XL Inclusive Education

Aurelie van 't Slot

How do you facilitate challenging classroom discussions? During this session, using concrete cases and pedagogical tools, we will discuss how to foster skills in students to deal with differences constructively.

11 Apr | 12-13h

Podcasts in Education

Thomas Vorisek & Henk Kern

Learn more about using podcasts in your classes. The Digital Skills Podcasting workshop gives students the tools to prepare, record and edit their own podcast.

15 Apr | 15-16h

Active Teaching in an ALC

Anna Benjamins & Annebeth Simonsz

This session takes place in an Active Learning Classroom (ALC). You will learn how to use activating work forms and get students to collaborate using flexible furniture and whiteboards. Even teaching outside is possible in this room.

16 May | 12-13h

Education on the Map

Dario Fazzi & Limin Teh

Dario and Limin show how they have students use visual tools like Google Maps, Google Earth and ArcGIS StoryMaps during their lectures to map an issue or event.

27 May | 12-13h

Teaching for Big Groups

Rogier Kegge

Teaching large groups comes with its own dynamics and challenges. In this lunchbyte, you will receive insights on how to effectively approach your classes for full auditoriums.

Do you want to participate in one or more lunchbytes?

REGISTER NOW!