Guidelines disinfecting test material

1. Will the participant touch the test materials?
   - Yes
     - Can disposable materials be used?
       - Yes
         - Use disposable materials
         - Disinfection not required
       - NO
         - Is it mandatory to disinfect with the Incidin Plus solution?
           - YES
             - Researcher uses the "Incidin Plus® EEG Cleaning" protocol. Only disinfect in SB02 & SB1
           - NO
             - Is it mandatory to disinfect with the Incidin Plus solution?
               - YES
                 - Researcher wears disposable gloves and uses the Incidin Oxywipes to disinfect the materials
               - NO
                 - Is the isopropyl alcohol 70% suited for disinfection?
                   - YES
                     - Researcher wears disposable gloves and uses the isopropyl alcohol 70% for disinfecting the materials
                   - NO
                     - Researcher sets the materials aside and does not use or touch the materials for 24 hours.

   - NO
     - Is it mandatory to disinfect with the Incidin Plus solution?
       - YES
         - Researcher wears disposable gloves and uses the Incidin Oxywipes to disinfect the materials
       - NO
         - Is the isopropyl alcohol 70% suited for disinfection?
           - YES
             - Researcher wears disposable gloves and uses the isopropyl alcohol 70% for disinfecting the materials
           - NO
             - Researcher sets the materials aside and does not use or touch the materials for 24 hours.