

GRANT NEWSLETTER May 2021

Corona and research

The outbreak of the new Corona virus has great impact on everyone's lives. In this newsletter you'll find additional information, in particular for researchers at the Faculty of Social and Behavioural Sciences.

Over all, funding organizations have taken measures effecting the grant process.

We urgently advise to check the websites for the possibly changed deadlines, updates and other important information.

Pre-award: This newsletter contains an overview of grants that could be interesting for our scientific staff. The Faculty is happy to offer support with your application. For more information, please contact Hester Bergsma.

Email: h.w.bergsma@fsw.leidenuniv.nl or at researchdesk@fsw.leidenuniv.nl

Phone number: +31 71 527 7916

Post-award: Obtained a grant? Congratulations! Please consult Anita Wagemaker for matters such as legal verification of the contract and obtaining the correct signatures.

Email: researchdesk@fsw.leidenuniv.nl

Phone number: +31 71 527 7352

If you consider applying for a grant, be aware that it might take some time to obtain mandatory forms and signatures as well as legal checks. Contact researchdesk@fsw.leidenuniv.nl for more information and advice on planning and preparing you application.

Luris has provided a handy overview of things to think of/consider when writing a grant:

Special Note

ERC Horizon Europe: Gender Equality Plan

One of the changes between Horizon 2020 and Horizon Europe is the 'Gender Equality Plan'. We understand from the EC any Gender Equality Plan needs to be in place by the time first Grant Agreements are signed, therefore early 2022.

Leiden University is already well on the way to completing its Gender Equality Plan which will be completed in good time. In the meantime the Diversity Office has provided us a list of the currently publicly available information on the various University websites:

➡ FSW Research Support website

The FSW Research Support website offers information to scientists at the Faculty of Social and Behavioural Sciences, during the different stages of their research.

The website includes information on finding and applying for grants, writing research proposals, funding and regulations, as well as protocols for safe working practices, manuals for equipment and software, and contact details for supporters.

An important part are currently the COVID-19 protocols - guidelines for researchers who want to restart their research.

To keep improving this website, we kindly ask you to email any suggestions for additional information and your remarks. We intend to keep developing our web pages, so all researchers might profit!

English editing service

If you are submitting an individual grant proposal and would like to increase your competitive edge join the Individual Grants Support Programme. Next to the usual support by the faculty's and university's grant advisors, LRS has made funds available to have an external (English) editor review the final draft of your proposal.

If you are interested please contact researchdesk@fsw.leidenuniv.nl

Impact

Knowledge utilisation to create impact - NWO

Besides scientific impact, research should also have a societal impact and contribute to solving societal issues. Within the social sciences and humanities domain, much knowledge and experience has been gained in facilitating the societal impact of research, for example within the many thematic programmes and international collaborations.

Research manuals have been developed to help social sciences and humanities researchers set up collaborative programmes and projects.

RVO Webinar series: Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions Postdoctoral Fellowships (3-10-17 June)

The Marie Skłodowska-Curie Postdoctoral Fellowships (PF) provide funding for individual researchers. With this funding, researchers can diversify and broaden their scientific knowledge and skills. These are international fellowships. This means you must move (or have moved) to a different country to take part. The Dutch National Contact Point for the Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions (MSCA) will explain the possibilities and participation methods during a webinar series. The webinar series is made up of three modules. You will receive tips and tricks for writing a successful proposal and there will be ample time for questions More information

The deadline for the 2021 PF call is set on 12 October 2021 (instead of September), this date may possibly change. If you have any questions concerning your eligibility, please contact researchdesk@fsw.leidenuniv.nl

EMPOWERING RESEARCHERS IN THE SOCIAL SCIENCES

'The Netherlands eScience Center is proud to announce our partnership with ODISSEI, as we invite social science researchers to submit research proposals for consideration.

Through this call we aim to support researchers in the social sciences who need expertise in applying or developing digital technologies and research software.

Following a review process, each of six awarded projects will be offered in-kind support from the eScience Center, in the form of research software engineers collaborating on the project for three person months.'

A virtual information event will be held on 10 June 2021 at 14:00 - 16:00, details of which can be found here

See calls Lorentz-eScience Competition 2022 and Open ODISSEI eScience Call 2021 on page 12 in this newsletter

Integral call planning REVISED

Due to a hack of NWO's network, the grant procedure for all rounds of NWO, including those of the Taskforce for Applied Research (SIA) and the Netherlands Initiative for Education Research (NRO), was suspended on 13 February. In general, the basic principle for the resumption of the funding process is that all deadlines will be put back by five weeks from the date they were originally planned. In certain cases the new dates will be corrected, for example if the relevant dates fall on public holidays or during holiday periods. The revised integral call planning can be found on this page.

NWO funding instruments KIC 2020-2023

The NWO instruments for the Knowledge and Innovation Covenant (KIC) 2020-2023 provide funding for fundamental and practical research in a public-private partnership (PPP). The set of instruments consists of four main lines, for which 118 million euros has been reserved annually.

The NIAS-Lorentz Program calls for coordinators for the NIAS-Lorentz Theme Group (NLTG) 2022/2023. A NIAS-Lorentz Theme Group (NLTG) is an international group of three researchers including the coordinator. All NLTG members hold fellowships at NIAS, providing them the opportunity to work as a team and engage in the kind of intensive interdisciplinary collaboration that is often difficult to realize in a regular academic setting. They specifically work as a group on cutting-edge research that bridges the divide between the humanities and/or social sciences and the natural and/or technological sciences.

Lorentz-eScience Competition 2022

Every year the Netherlands eScience Center and the Lorentz Center invite researchers to join the Lorentz-eScience competition. This year the competition aims to host a leading-edge workshop on explainable AI for science.

High predictive accuracy AI models are often used to tackle data-driven research challenges. AI explainability technology is an important instrument in building trust in AI solutions, while enabling new insights and scientific discoveries. The workshop should bring together researchers and AI experts from the academic community and the public/ private sector. The winner will organize a workshop at the Lorentz Center at Snellius in Leiden, the Netherlands.
