Compensation trade union membership

The compensation for the trade union membership can only be granted if:

- the employee joined the trade union in August or September 2023;
- it is a new membership; the compensation only applies for the first annual contribution;
- the employee can submit the 'proof of registration' of the trade union, with a declaration that the employee will remain a member for at least one year;
- the application for the compensation is received by the PSSC no later than 15 November 2023, fully completed and accompanied by the necessary appendix.

And:

- half of the first annual membership fee is reimbursed, with a maximum of €100.00;
- the compensation will be paid in December 2023;
- if you apply for and are awarded for the compensation for the trade union contribution of up to €100.00 in the first year of membership of the trade union, this compensation will automatically be deducted from the amount you wish to set off through the Individual Choices Model. Therefore, enter the full amount of the trade union fee in the amount to be offset.
